

Radioshack Lube

Anyone tried the lubricant from radioshack?
<http://www.radioshack.com/product/in...ductId=2102643>
Its the only lubricant i found near my area.
Or does anyone knoe of any good household lubricants?
im looking for lubricants for unresponseive play btw.

Re: Radioshack Lube

It's a synthetic, teflon based lube Made by Synco, sold under the Radio Shack Label. Yomega brain lube is the same product sold w/the Yomega label.

Sold under their own label it's known as Synco Super Lube.
Read the MSDS specs under the product support tab.
